ART IN Furniture —AND— Furniture Coverings.

Although the tendency nowadays is to have a variety of coloring in a room, the colors of each piece of furniture must be carefully studied out if you desire a pleasing effect. With taste and a little careful study you can get the same rich effect with half the money. In buying the most expensive goods you are generally sure of a rich and artistic effect, but if you use good judgment you can get the same effect at half the price.

In our semi-tropical climate a very essential point is to have your furniture covering harmonize with the surroundings—your room furnishings as well as the outside surroundings. Not only do these furniture coverings present a pleasing effect to the eye, but they also save your furniture.

You don't have to work for money you save. And the shrewd provider for the home will take advantage of every opportunity to save that which presents itself. That's why our portable sales are such a success. Everybody who looks at the values—and the prices—sees the bargain and the bounty of quality and attractive patterns enormous.

Our repair department is run on the saving-to-you plan. We give you the best service for the least price.

Negotiations are pending for the purchase by the Government of the industrial school property at Nawiliwili, consisting of buildings for the comfortable accommodation of forty pupils and about thirty acres of land. If the purchase is made the Reformatory school of Honolulu will be removed and established at that place.

The present Reformatory school premises, or the part not occupied by the Palama school, will be used for the purpose of an industrial school for girls under the Department of Education. In all likelihood the deal for the Kaula property will be closed in a few days.

A LEADER GONE

Untimely Death of Brilliant Hawaiian.

Judge Antone Rosa—Had a Promising Future—Was a Favorite of Late King—Funeral.

Judge Antone Rosa died at his home on King street about 3 yesterday morning and was buried from the Catholic Cathedral at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. A platoon of police escorted the remains to the grave in the Catholic cemetery. The funeral procession was a quite large one. Deceased had many admiring friends. A complication of ailments caused death. Mr. Rosa had been ill about two months.

Judge Rosa was born at Kalae, Moloka'i, November 10, 1855, forty-three years ago. He completed his education at the Royal School in Honolulu and in 1875 was appointed deputy clerk of the Supreme Court, a position he held seven years. He then studied law two years and in October, 1884, was admitted to the Hawaiian Bar. In 1886, Judge Rosa was appointed Attorney-General by King Kalakaua, but retired the following year. He was a Major on the staff of the King.

Upon the death of Judge Austin of Hawaii in 1896, deceased was appointed Judge of the Third and Fourth Circuit Courts, but retired a short time later at his own volition to attend to his private practice in Honolulu.

Judge Rosa spoke English as fluently as Hawaiian, and also knew French. He read considerable, kept well posted on current topics and was an easy, pleasant conversationalist. In Court he was a man of force and eloquence.

Judge Rosa leaves a wife and three children, residing in the new house on King street at the Waikiki turn.

The pall-bearers at the funeral were: Associate Justice W. A. Whitling, Attorney-General W. O. Smith, S. C. Dwight, C. B. Wilson, Carl Mett, Henry Smith, J. K. Kaula and J. K. Kahookano.

PER S. S. BELGIC.

Caspar Whitney and Other Notables Aboard.

The S. S. Belgic has a number of notable passengers. Caspar Whitney, the editor of the sporting department of Harper's Weekly, will remain in Honolulu for a time. Mr. Whitney is intensely pro-amateur. He will certainly enjoy the boat races and such field sports as may be held during his stay. Mr. Whitney is the man who made himself hated in California by condemning the professionalism of so-called amateur coast organizations.

Mr. Whitney was at the surrender of Santiago. His wife is with him on the trip.

Miki Saito's arrival here is probably timed with the sitting of the Commission. He is Japan's traveling consul. Year after year this gentleman visits Japanese colonies all over the world. While here he will look closely into conditions for the purpose of reporting to the Japanese foreign office.

Another Japanese aboard the Belgic will be here only during the stay in port of the ship. This gentleman is Sakahashi. He is a big man in the Yokohama Specie Bank.

Abram S. Humphreys returned by the Belgic last night, entirely restored to health. He was accompanied by his wife. Fred. Out also returned in fine health. Robert Lewers, Mrs. Lewers and Miss Lewers were others in the Honolulu party.

Hon. N. W. McIvor, formerly Consul-General to Japan, is aboard on his way to Yokohama. He has been engaged by the Japanese Government on an important legal matter.

Hon. John T. Hamilton, Congressman from Iowa, is on his way to Japan for a pleasure tour.

Edwin Wildeman, the new Vice-Consul at Hongkong, accompanied by his wife, is on his way to his post. He is a brother of Consul Rounseville Wildeman, who has figured so conspicuously in the war in the Orient.
